PREFACE

To the uninitiated Data User, the Census publications pose a formidable challenge in the context of culling out the desired information. Often, the attempt is abandoned halfway or the responsibility entrusted to the more knowledgeable. The net result is that the sight of the Census publications, generally evoke mixed reactions—awe, indifference, and lastly, appreciation; the proportion of sentiment varies, but, the balance tilts against the poor publication.

In explicit appreciation of this problem, which has confounded generations of Data Users, an attempt has been made to prepare a "Users' Index", which at a glance, would indicate subjectwise information available in the concerned volumes of a particular Census—the present Users' Index relates to the 1981 Census publications.

The Data Users would be happy to note that this maiden endeavour is being made an integral part of the District Census Handbooks of 1991 Census. I am particularly grateful to Shri O. P. Mehra, Principal Secretary to Government of Madhya Pradesh for motivating me to undertake this task.

BHOPAL,
Dated 19th August, 1992
